

The Hamilton Golf and Country Club Limited

The membership of the Hamilton Golf & Country Club is proud to extend to you an invitation to play in the Hamilton Golf & Country Club Men's Invitational on Monday June 24th, 2019.

The History of the Hamilton Golf and Country Club dates back to 1894. In 1914 the club relocated to its current location when renowned British golf course designer, Harry S. Colt, was commissioned to design the new course.

The Hamilton Golf and Country Club has a great history of hosting the best players in the world. In 1919, the course hosted the 2nd international match between the leading amateur golfers from the United States and Canada. Americans Chick Evans, Bobby Jones, and Francis Ouimet competed against the likes of Canadians George Lyon, William McLuckie, and Hamilton's own, Fritz Martin. The Canadian Open was held the following week and the winner, Douglas Edgar from Atlanta, set a new course record of 66. This was eclipsed by Tommy Armour's 64 when the Open returned in 1930. In more recent years Hamilton Golf and Country Club has hosted the 1996 PGA Senior Tour's Canadian Open along with the 2003, 2006, 2012 and the 2019 PGA Tour's RBC Canadian Open. The course and the Club received rave reviews from the players, media and fans.

There will be two champions declared for the day, one for an Open Division and one for a Senior Division. The format for the invitational will be a 27-hole medal play tournament played over all three of H.G. & C.C.'s championship nines. The registration table and driving range will open at 7:30am with tee times commencing at 9:00am. Lunch will be provided during the round and Hors d'oeuvres and cocktails will follow play at 5:00pm in the Great Hall. Trophy and prize presentations will take place at 6:00pm. Jacket and tie will NOT be required for dinner, casual golf attire only. Locker room services will be available for all players during the day.

Please return the entry form enclosed to the Hamilton Golf and Country Club by fax, mail or email. Entry Deadline is June 10th, 2019. To ensure an exciting, hard fought competition the tournament committee has extended invitations to 100 players. The final field will be comprised of the top 60 ranked amateur players and the top 30 ranked senior amateur players that have submitted their entry prior to June 10th, 2019. The final draw will be posted on the event website and sent via e-mail June 17th, 2019. Please be sure to provide us with an up-to-date e-mail address.

Look forward to seeing you on June 24th, 2019.

Sincerely,

David Miller
Head Professional
